19th Century Stained Glass Window Depicting La Giralda, Seville

1 650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Description

This magnificent 19th century stained glass window pays tribute to the iconic La Giralda, the bell tower of the Cathedral of Santa María de la Sede in Seville, Spain. The intricate art captures the architectural splendor of this historic monument, symbolizing the harmonious blend of Islamic and Christian influences. Characteristics: Subject: La Giralda, the famous bell tower of Seville, originally built as a minaret of the mosque during the Almohad period (12th century) and later transformed in the 16th century to include a Christian-style bell chamber. Material and Technique: Traditional 19th century stained glass, expertly assembled with lead joints. Frame: Mounted in a later wooden frame to preserve and enhance its presentation. Condition: The panel is in good condition, showcasing its

Dealer

Florin Antiques
Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme
Tel : 0034 671 362 406
Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31
Madrid 28004

vibrant colors and intricate design, with minimal signs of wear consistent with its age. Dimensions: Framed: 130 x 50 cm. This exquisite piece pays historic homage to La Giralda, providing a stunning decorative element for collectors or admirers of Andalusian heritage and architectural beauty.