Description

Pocket watch by the prestigious manufacture Vacheron & Constantin. Early 20th Century, 1920. Vacheron Constantin is one of the oldest and most renowned watchmakers in the world, and the oldest to have been continuously producing since its foundation. The Maison was founded on 17 September 1755 in the Genevan district of Saint-Gervais by the Jean-Baptiste Marc Vacheron (1731-1805). Initially, the watchmaking atelier was composed of Jean-Marc and an apprentice. In 1785, the founder's sons, Louis André and Abraham Vacheron, took over the company. The watch dynasty of his son Louis André ends in the early 1930s and the company's management is taken over by Abraham, the sole heir. During the years of his administration, the Maison passed in 1810 to his son Jacques
