Description

19th century Louis XV style chest of drawers, curved front opening with 4 drawers on 3 rows. The sides are paneled. The top is a Burgundy stone decorated with a corbin beak around its perimeter. The handles and lock entries are in bronze. Dovetail assembly for the drawers. Matt black covering lacquer finish, and gold lacquer finish on the bronze handles. The Burgundy stone top has an old breach which is not deep, I attach a photo of the underside of the top.
