Description

Painting, oil on canvas, measuring 55 x 65 cm without frame and 64 x 82 cm with frame, depicting two racing Ferraris, during a grand prix, by the painter Maurizio Scarpari, as can be seen from the initials MS 98 on the painting and the warranty certificate on the back of the painting.

A painting with a truly remarkable chromatic impact in its use of a very luminous material, in the peremptory break between the areas in light and those in shadow, in the execution of the lively machines that populate the theatrical scaffolding and in the rendering of the almost rainbow-coloured, child-like clouds that we find identical in other of his more important works.

For fans of the genre, I think it is a truly beautiful
