Description

Elegant mirror with a square frame in carved wood, partially painted and gilded, enriched with pastiglia. The mirror, of circular shape, gives a further touch of refinement. The frame is adorned with decorations of vegetal garlands, while on the corners there are heads of cupids, surrounded by vegetal racemes, elements that add elegance and recall the neoclassical style inspired by antiquity. This mirror mirror, of great refinement and taste, is able to furnish any room with class and elegance. Tuscan manufacture of the early 19th century.
