Description

"Panache et Fantaisie", illustrated by Hugo Grygkar published in 1958 and 1998, this beautiful scarf, quite rare and quite sought-after in silk twill with hand-rolled edges, is available on an ivory background. This composition represents richly harnessed horse heads surrounded by plumes and equestrian attributes, in a dark gray border with dominant colors gold, yellow, gray, green The title Panache et Fantaisie appears in the center, while the name of the House Hermès Paris is centered at the bottom. No copyright since this is a 1958 edition. Dimensions: 89 x 86 cm Beautiful original condition, used and preserved both in terms of the silk and the colors still very present. No hole, note a trace at the level of a fold which in no way affects the quality of the scarf given its age. See
