Description

Bronze torch sculpture from the 19th century representing a young love or angel holding a light by Georges de Kervéguen. Very interesting sculpture by its subject with this cherub taking his run-up on a playful fool's head. Good signature of this 19th century sculptor who died in 1897. Decorative and fun piece that can be used as a lamp while keeping its art object and collector's side. Beautiful size 53 at the top of the lampshade. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by professional carrier or by secure and insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided.
