

Large Kuchi Tripartite Silver Pendant, Pakistan Or Afghanistan

400 EUR

Signature : Culure KUCHI, Pakistan ou Afghanistan

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Width : 16cm

Height : 37cm

Description

ETHNIC JEWELRY / TRIBAL ARTKUCHI culture, Pakistan or Afghanistan Superb and original vintage jewellery pendant The necklace is designed by a complex composition of 3 superimposed registers and connected by networks of chains: triangular at the top, square in the center and polylobed at the bottom. The whole is decorated with 12 red and green glass cabochons cut with facets like diamond-point. The central part is notably decorated with stylized birds, lower part with floral or leafy motifs. The leaf motif is still repeated by numerous pendants of the jewel. Its upper attachment in the shape of a simple S shape hook shows that it was perhaps part of a larger set. The jewel seems to me to be in silver and vermeil rather than silver-plated brass but no hallmark is visible (It could be low-grade

Dealer

Siegfried Fabien

Céramique anciennes, Hte Epoque, Art islamique et indien, Curiosa

Tel : 06 82 45 46 13

Le-Petit-Pressigny 37350 silver) ?Dimensions 37cm high by 16cm wide approximately Weight 228g Nice overall patina This piece is part of a private private Spanish collection (Georgio VERDALLE , who was customer and antiques dealer herself in San Francisco with a shop named "Tribal Bazar") of 15 pieces of similar provenance, purchased locally (mainly in Pakistan and Afghanistan) and brought back to Europe in the 1970's. Please check last photos for global overview and another very similar shape piece than this one with different design