

Ethnic Naga Konyak Choker Necklace Rows Of Beads & Tubes, Stones Glass & Carved Bone Bars

1 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Semi precious stone

Width : 35cm

Height : 44cm

Description

ETHNIC JEWELRY / TRIBAL ARTS
Superb Naga Konyak tribe, Nagaland (North Est of India) necklace made up of 29 rows of carved and polished multi-colored stones mini tubes shape beads, and glass paste, some in brass. The tribal jewel is punctuated vertically by 10 thin large carved bone separation bars to give a certain rigidity to the whole. Mounted on rope and large round closing carved bone button also, with a very beautiful patina. Sizes Around 44cm high by 35 cm wide Superb overall patina, for the finely carved stems and the bone button, but also the beads, largely irregular in length or diameter, shape and or polished. This piece is part of a private Spanish collection (Georgio VERDALLE, who was antics dealer in San Francisco with a shop names "Tribal Bazar") of 15 pieces of

Dealer

Siegfried Fabien

Céramique anciennes, Hte Epoque, Art islamique et indien, Curiosa

Tel : 06 82 45 46 13

Le-Petit-Pressigny 37350

similar provenance, purchased locally (mainly in Pakistan, Afghanistan or India), although this necklace seems very different to me from the other pieces) and brought back to Europe in the 1970s. Please check last photo for an overview