

Rococo Revival Gilded Mirror

2 140 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gilded wood

Width : 72 cm

Height : 115 cm

Depth : 5 cm

Description

This exquisite gilded mirror is a stunning example of Rococo-inspired craftsmanship, standing 115 cm tall and radiating timeless elegance. The frame features intricate hand-carved details, including floral motifs, scrolls, and a central shell crest at the top, symbolizing wealth and refinement. Its curved design embodies the fluidity and natural elements characteristic of the Rococo style, making it a sophisticated addition to any interior.

Dating likely to the early 20th century, this mirror reflects the revival of Rococo design during this period. Such pieces were highly sought after by the bourgeoisie, who appreciated the elegance and prestige associated with historical styles. While faithful to the aesthetics of the 18th

Dealer

Chic French Antiques

Purveyor of fine French antiques dating from the 18th to the 20th century

Mobile : 0612049287

Showroom

La Ciotat 13600

century, the craftsmanship and materials indicate a later production, blending traditional artistry with evolving techniques.

The mirror is adorned with a richly gilded finish, which adds a warm glow and enhances its decorative appeal. The quality of the craftsmanship is evident in every curve and flourish, showcasing the attention to detail that went into its creation. The dual-pane mirror itself reflects beautifully, offering both practicality and an enhancement to the surrounding space by amplifying light and creating an illusion of depth.

The back of the mirror is constructed with solid wood panels, ensuring stability and durability. This combination of artistry and robust construction makes it an ideal piece for those seeking both form and function. Whether placed in an entryway, living room, or bedroom, this mirror will become the focal point of your décor, bringing a sense of luxury and history to your home.