

Large Kuchi Tripartite Silver Pendant, Pakistan Or Afghanistan

350 EUR

Signature : Culure KUCHI, Pakistan ou Afghanistan

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Width : 14cm

Height : 35cm

Description

ETHNIC JEWELRY / TRIBAL ART

KUCHI culture, Pakistan or Afghanistan

Superb and original vintage jewellery pendant

The necklace is designed by a complex composition of 3 superimposed registers and connected by networks of chains: triangular at the top, square in the center and polylobed at the bottom.

The whole is decorated with 12 red and green glass cabochons cut with facets like diamond-point.

The central and lower parts are decorated with various geometric patterns; the upper one with floral or foliated motifs. The leaf motif is further

Dealer

Siegfried Fabien

Céramique anciennes, Hte Epoque, Art islamique et indien, Curiosa

Tel : 06 82 45 46 13

Le-Petit-Pressigny 37350

echoed by the pendant's many pendants

It may have been part of a larger set (see the S-shaped attachment of the other similar pendant put up for sale on my account a few days ago)

The jewel seems to me to be in silver and vermeil rather than silver-plated brass but no hallmark is visible (It could be low-grade silver) ?

Dimensions

35cm high by 14cm wide approximately

Weight 231g

Nice overall patina

This piece is part of a private private Spanish collection (Georgio VERDALLE , who was customer and antics dealer herself in San Francisco with a shop named "Tribal Bazar") of 15 pieces of similar provenance, purchased locally (mainly in Pakistan and Afghanistan) and brought back to Europe in the 1970's. Please check last photos for global overview and another very similar shape piece than this one with different design