PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Chinese Bronze Vase Qing Dynasty Xuande Mark 17th Century Antique Archaistic Flower Vase

4 750 EUR

Period : 17th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Bronze
Diameter : 11.5 cm.
Height : 17.5 cm.

Description

A fine Chinese bronze vase with lion handles. Qing dynasty, 17th century.

The squat body resting on a spreading foot, with two finely-cast leonine mask handles applied to the shoulder and up the thin tall cylindrical neck rising to a trumpet-shaped mouth, the surface of the bronze with a warm patina, the base with a recessed rectangle containing an apocryphal six-character mark Da Ming Xuande Nian Zhi.

Ref:
Compare with a similar example but with gilt-splashed decoration, Sotheby's, New York, Mar 20, 2012, lot 82.

Also compare with a small bronze censer with

Dealer

Menken Works of Art
Art Asiatique
Tel : 00316-14916974

Herengracht 240
Amsterdam 1016BT

similar beast mask handles: Sotheby's, London, Jun 18, 2019, lot 12.

Dimensions:
Height 17.5 cm, diameter 11.5 cm.

Condition:
Good condition with a hardly visible dent to the body.

Inv. No: MW130