Description

We are pleased to present this captivating religious painting from the Italian school, executed in oil on canvas in the 18th century. This exquisite piece depicts the Madonna in prayer and draws inspiration from a renowned painting by the Italian artist Giovanni Battista Salvi, known as Sassoferrato (1609 - Rome, 1685). The original work, celebrated for its iconography, achieved great success and has been studied and reproduced by numerous lesser-known artists over the centuries. The painting we offer showcases excellent pictorial quality, suggesting the skillful execution by an artist well-versed in painting techniques. It remains on its original canvas, with the wooden frame having been reinforced on the back to ensure stability. The thin outer frame is of recent
