Description

This mahogany bookcase dating from 1920 is a true gem of antique furniture. It opens with a large central door and two smaller side doors, each three-quarter glazed. The doors are fitted with original locks with chased bronze entrances, revealing three shelves mounted on racks. The fluted uprights are richly decorated with falls, rosettes and palmettes, adding a touch of refinement. The pediment is decorated with a putti scene, bringing an artistic and delicate note to the whole. The piece of furniture is crowned with three slabs of Guillestre breccia marble, offering a luxurious finish. Finally, the whole rests on six spinning top feet, ensuring stability and elegance. This bookcase embodies the elegance and craftsmanship of the early 20th century, making it a centerpiece for any lover of
