Description

A stunning pair of Empire four-light gilt bronze figural candelabra, of French origin, dating back to 1810 circa. Extraordinary high-quality casting, chasing, engraving and mercury gilding.

Each flambeau has four curved branches decorated with floral patterns, ending with palm leaves and wax cups or bobèches are flower-shaped. Candle holders issuing from a torch, held by putti balancing on a round globe. Both cherubs have a perfect anatomy, with curled hair and a spectacular chiseled plumage wings. The candelabra are mounted on a stepped square base measuring 13 x 13 centimeters .

In overall excellent condition, with the exception of old restorations on a garland, an index finger and a leaf top missing.

They come from a luxury villa at Como Lake..
