Description

Spectacular Pair of Louis XIV Style Wall Sconces, Napoleon III Period (Late 19th Century) This pair of gilt bronze wall sconces dates from the late 19th century, during the Napoleon III period, and is inspired by the Louis XIV style. Each sconce features two finely crafted light arms adorned with classical details, perfectly embodying the elegance and refinement of their era. Condition Report: Scratches and signs of wear on the gilding. These sconces are sold in their used condition, which adds to their authenticity and period charm. All the screw threads have been replaced to ensure optimal electricity. Both sconces are already electrified and ready to be installed. All that remains is to add the small candles with their sheaths to finalize their installation. Dimensions: o Width:
