Joseph Edgar Boehm, an English sculptor of Austrian origin (1834-1890), as he was twice before by the painter Rudolf Swoboda (1859-1914), at the Queen's request. Our sculptor also created a marble statue of Queen Victoria for Windsor Castle in 1871 (Royal Collection Trust, inv. RCIN 35336), as well as coinage and a monumental bronze sculpture for the Jubilee of Queen in 1887.
