Description

Beautiful and large oil on canvas by the famous and sulphurous Tropezian painter Michel GAMBIER (1949-2012) entitled "L'argentine". Dimensions: 82 x 66 cm Highly rated painter! Michel Gambier was born in 1949 in France. He is a contemporary artist whose style is radically different from that of Léon Gambier. Michel Gambier is best known for his portraits of celebrities, such as Keith Richards of the Rolling Stones, Jim Morrison of the Doors, and Patti Smith. His paintings have a distinctive style that makes them immediately recognizable. They are often painted with bright colors and bold brushstrokes that create an interesting texture. The portraits are often painted with a dark background that makes the main character stand out. Michel Gambier's works have been exhibited
