Description

Pair of large horizontal paintings executed in oil on canvas, depicting biblical scenes: specifically, Moses Striking the Rock and The Miracle of the Loaves and Fishes. Both works are inspired by paintings of Bartolomé Esteban Murillo. These 17th-century paintings are currently part of the collection of the Scottish National Gallery. They are dated to the first quarter of the 19th century and remain on their original canvas. One of the two paintings has a cut of approximately 10 cm in the upper part, which has been promptly and professionally restored.
