to the mastered gesture of the potter. o Internal decoration: Two concentric grooves made on the wheel, creating a sober but balanced decoration. o Wear: Particularly worn coating on the inside, especially on the central part and on the lip, as well as on the outside under the lip and on the edges created by turning. Use: These Campanian cups were mainly intended for funeral rituals and offerings placed with the deceased. Their sobriety and black finish gave them a strong symbolic role, marking the transition between the world of the living and the afterlife. o Condition: Missing and one broken-glued, with a slight chip. The natural traces of wear do not in any way affect the readability of the details or the quality of the object. Documentation: Listed and analyzed in the Revue archéologique de Narbonnaise, volume 6, 1973, under number 16 (fig. 17). This reference guarantees the authenticity and scientific provenance of the piece. Dimensions: o Height: 4.5 cm o Opening diameter: 25.5 cm o Foot diameter: 7.7 cm ALL DELIVERIES ARE MADE BY DHL EXPRESS ONLY.
