Description

Breton sideboard in finely decorated oak with regional motifs.

We find there indeed the small typical "distaffs", as well as 2 portraits (man and woman with their headdress and hat).

This is a piece of furniture of rural inspiration as evidenced by the rural scenes of sowing and harvesting of sheaves.

Very pretty scene of folk dance (fest-noz) with its characters dancing the gavotte to the sound of the biniou and the bombarde.

Probably a piece of wedding furniture.

Furniture dating from the 20th century.

In good condition, immediately functional.
