Description

Elegant pair of mirrors in carved and gilded wood with the "guazzo" technique. The frames are enriched with a refined decoration of vegetal scrolls, which gives a touch of class. The central part consists of a small shelf painted that recalls yellow Siena marble, which can be used to place objects. The original mirrors are mercury and in good condition. These elegant and refined mirrors are perfect for embellishing any room, adding a note of style and sophistication. They are attributed to Tuscan manufacture from the mid-18th century.
