

Louis XVI Living Room In Lacquered Wood And Aubusson Tapestry

4 400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Painted wood

Description

Magnificent Louis XVI period living room in white lacquered carved wood, gendarme hat back, grooved belts and fluted feet.

Composed of a large eight-legged sofa and two armchairs.

Upholstery covered with aubusson tapestry featuring genre scenes on the backs and animals on the seats, the whole framed in drapery and floral garlands decorations.

Rare authentic and charming set, the exceptional condition of the tapestries testifies to non-intensive ceremonial use over the years.

Prestigious provenance, Parisian private mansion
