Description

Vintage silver print Studio AN Paris circa 1920
Art Deco staging, shadow play and geometric shapes. Studio AN is a large French photography studio and postcard publisher. Armand Noyer, a well-known photographer at the beginning of the 20th century, has his studio on Boulevard de Strasbourg in Paris. There he photographs many movie stars or artists (Colette) or sportsmen (Georges Carpentier). In the 1920s, he publishes nudes in sepia tones. This Art Deco nude is inspired by contemporary artists whose works he has largely photographed. - Under 40x50cm mat -
Photo format 17.3x 22.5 cm
