Description

Louis XVI tea table in marquetry. This elegant tea table, typical of the Louis XVI style, has a lower top in rosewood marquetry, while the upper top is topped with sumptuous red griotte marble, framed by a gilded bronze ingot mold. The uprights, decorated with delicate acanthus leaf pattern falls, bring a touch of refinement. Practical and functional, it has two handles for easy movement. It rests on four sheathed legs, ending in graceful gilded bronze sabots.
