

Porcelain Pattipan With Grisaille Decoration Of The Goddess Ceres - China 18th Century Qianlong Per

570 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 13cm

Width : 11,2cm

Description

Porcelain pattipan with grisaille decoration representing Ceres, the goddess of agriculture. She is represented with a sickle, as well as a crown of ears of wheat.

The border is decorated with a garland of flowers, the decoration topped with a crown.

China 18th century

Qianlong period (1736-1795)

Length: 13cm

Width: 11.2cm

For an identical decoration on a saucer, see:

- François and Nicole Hervouët, La porcelaine des Compagnies des Indes à décor occidental, Fig. 13.24, p.297

The decoration is painted after an engraving by Claude III Audran, the "August" season

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011

Provenance:

- Edouard Cochet Perfect condition, slight wear of the enamels.

More information and photos on request.