Description

Pair of sconces made in the 50s and 60s with carved wooden capitals from the 18th century. Very beautiful and majestic pair of completely contemporary light fixtures lighting two carved capitals from the Regency period, early 18th century. Very beautiful quality of sculpture in the round decorated with a beautiful original patina. Excellent condition for these two sculptures which will adorn a classic or modern interior with an astonishing decorative effect. Note the lively and nervous character of the sculpture of the acanthus leaves and the volutes. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by secure and insured package with order tracking. Capitals 38 by 28 cm.
