Description

Billiard table receiver - bronze hand - 19th century

Nice corner of a billiard table called "Dégueuloir" in bronze.

Also called a billiard corner, our sculpture is in bronze and allows you to receive a billiard ball once it enters one of the holes of the table.

The shape of this sculpture is based on an ancient model, similar shapes of which can be found in the Archaeology Museum of the city of Naples.

Height: 13 cm and 17 cm with the base

Width: 7cm
