Description

This 1920s vanity mirror is a real piece of character that embodies the charm of old-world craftsmanship. Made from high-quality carved wood, it demonstrates exceptional craftsmanship and rare attention to detail. Its elegant lines and finely crafted frame make it an object that is as decorative as it is functional, ideal for bringing a vintage and sophisticated touch to your interior. Its unique design, with a beveled octagonal mirror, very slightly pitted, and a warm patina on the wood, makes it a piece that fits harmoniously into a bedroom, a dressing table or even a living room, evoking a time when everyday objects were also works of art. The mirror is mounted on a frame that allows it to be oriented according to the light, which makes it particularly practical while highlighting its carved details. Given its
