

Unique Gold Opal Artist Brooch "blue Hope"

3 600 EUR

Signature : Jacques Michel

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Exceptional Brooch "Blue Hope" - Jacques Michel (1936-2020) This sumptuous brooch, entitled "Blue Hope", is an original and unique work signed by the Belgian artist Jacques Michel (1936-2020). A precious creation from the 1970s-1980s, it embodies the artisanal excellence and timeless elegance that characterize the work of this artist. A true masterpiece, it combines rare materials and a bold design. Main characteristics:

- o Artist: Jacques Michel, renowned Belgian jeweler and artist.
- o Title of the work: "Blue Hope", a unique piece signed by the artist.
- o Main material: 18-carat gold setting (750/1000), testifying to the quality and prestige of this creation.
- o Ornaments:
- o Natural opals: Two sumptuous stones of exceptional quality, with fascinating iridescent reflections.
- o Black pearl:

Dealer

MGA gallery

La passion de l'argenterie

Tel : +32 477 63 01 17

Rue Watteuu 9 et 25

Bruxelles 1000

Elegantly placed in the center, bringing a mysterious and sophisticated touch. o Weight: 26 grams, a guarantee of quality and solidity. o Dimensions: o Total length: approximately 13 cm o Maximum width: approximately 7.5 cm. o Original case: Signed by Jacques Michel, attesting to the authenticity and uniqueness of this work. About the artist: Jacques Michel, born in 1936 and died in 2020, is a renowned Belgian artist, graduated from the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Brussels. He began his career in advertising before participating in major projects, such as the decoration of the textile pavilion at Expo 58 in Brussels. Versatile, he also worked as a costume designer for theater and television. In 1976, he began creating his first precious jewels, marking a new stage in his artistic career. His works, mixing art and craftsmanship, are now preserved in prestigious collections, with a permanent exhibition at the Veranneman Foundation in Kruishoutem. Style and period: This brooch reflects the artistic audacity of the 70s and 80s, mixing noble materials with a resolutely contemporary aesthetic. The luminous opals and the black pearl are enhanced by an elegant and finely crafted setting. Condition: o Excellent condition, without notable defects. o The stones, the pearl and the gold setting are impeccable. Use: This "Blue Hope" brooch can be worn as a prestigious piece of jewelry or displayed as a work of jewelry art of great artistic and historical value. A rare and timeless creation, perfect for collectors and lovers of exceptional jewelry. Signed by Jacques Michel, one of the most talented Belgian artists of his generation, this piece is a precious testimony to his immense artistic heritage.