Description

Magnificent Carrara marble "The Dancer with the Flame" signed on the base Affortunato Gori (1869-1925)

Artist: Affortunato Gory (Gori) was a French-Italian artist who specialized in Art Deco figurative sculpture, often combining materials such as bronze, ivory and marble to dazzling effect. Born in 1895 in Florence, Italy, Gori emigrated to France after studying with the renowned sculptor Augusto Rivalta at the Accademia di Belle Arti in his hometown. After settling in Paris, he continued to practice and learn from the French artist Victorien-Antoine BASTET, and exhibited several times at the Salon des artistes français. He died in Paris in 1925.
