Description

Large Nubian Torch Holder From the 20th Century, first half in the spirit of the Venetian Nubians.
Important Nubian carved in wood and torch holder dressed in Indian style and wearing a feathered turban.

It rests on a pebble in the spirit of the Moors of the early 18th century in Venice.
A baroque and rococo side.
It holds a candelabra in metal and sheet metal with leaf decoration.
It has retained some gilding and was probably repainted during the 20th century.
Originally it may have been waxed wood color.
The colors are shimmering and bright.
It offers a very beautiful decoration in the
