Description

Cubist painting depicting naked women bathing, reminiscent of Paul Cezanne's Bathers and Henri Matisse's Bathers. André Léon Chabert was a French painter and poster and advertising designer. He was born in Grenoble on February 6, 1895. A student of the landscape painter André Albertin, he regularly exhibited oil and watercolor landscapes at the Salon de la Société des Amis des Arts in his hometown from 1919. He combined his artistic career with his professional activity as an architect. André Léon died in Grenoble on January 20, 1961.
