Description

Carved wood tobacco rasp - 1780's, France
Superb, finely carved walnut tobacco rasp from 1780, a unique example of 18th-century French craftsmanship. This object is richly decorated:

Delicately carved arabesques,

A bird perched on a tree,

A carved motto: "LE . LANGUY . WITHOUT .
THAT . LAIME".

This exceptional piece illustrates the refinement and craftsmanship of the period. The warm patina of the wood underlines its authenticity and age. In good overall condition, this tobacco grater is ideal for collectors or lovers of historical and decorative objects. A real treasure to enrich a collection or add a touch of history to an interior.
