Description

Duck, Hunting Caller, shapes, decoys, chard" I offer for sale a beautiful example of a hunting caller, a rare and precious object of folk art, carefully made and intended for collectors and enthusiasts of traditional art. This caller is an authentic testimony to the know-how of the craftsmen of yesteryear, hand-carved and often decorated with patterns and details characteristic of a bygone era. It is designed to imitate birds, thus deceiving prey and facilitating hunting. Characteristics: Type: Hunting caller Materials polychrome wood Period: late 19th early 20th Provenance: Camargue Condition: good condition This object, beyond its initial functionality, is also a remarkable decorative piece for any lover of folk art and cultural heritage.
