Description

Superb large art deco floor lamp decorated with roses with wrought iron base and white pressed-molded glass bowl by Degué. A very beautiful art deco period object with beautiful ironwork with 3 levels of roses and their leaves, as well as a very stable square base including stylized fruits. The whole is made up of windings and spirals on the central column. Truly exceptional work, which is reminiscent of the works of Paul Kiss or Edgard Brandt. The bowl, as for it, takes up this same decoration of stylized roses. It is well referenced produced by Degué (no doubt about the origin). The floor lamp has been re-electrified with 2-light LED lighting. A foot switch has been added for more practicality. Perfect condition, circa 1920.
