Description

miniature of straws and hair Napoleon III In Memoriam from a time when the image did not exist, there was then a profession that has disappeared today, that of hair composers. Depending on their state of fortune, one could keep a souvenir of the deceased person in the form of a bouquet of landscape or a composition made with hair... and in miniature, strands of straw were added.... The mausoleum recalls the place of rest, the flower garden, the permanent attention that one will pay to it and the tree in bloom: sustainability.... Medallion 5 cm in diameter, under its original curved glass, in its period wooden frame too.
