Description

The terracotta tambourine player. The pensive posture reveals a mise en abyme before her performance. Will she become a dancer as her dress suggests it.... She has a bustier with a frilly collar with a knot in the center that highlights her curves. The waist decorated with a draped belt adds a little more to the ensemble. The back column covered with vine is typical of the period (signature present) The base with the frieze completes the harmony! (4.5 cm) Delivery possible not included in the price
