Description

A charming set of six Spanish country-style carved dining chairs, curated in Provence, France, and dating from the late 20th century (Spain, 1980s). These beautifully hand-crafted chairs are made from solid maple wood and feature intricately hand-carved floral motifs on their ladder-back frames. The wood displays a naturally aged warm patina, showcasing a rich golden-brown hue that enhances their rustic appeal. Each chair is fitted with thick, hand-woven rush seats, all in excellent, intact condition. The seats are supported by hand-carved turned legs, joined by stretchers for added stability. With solid construction, excellent joinery, and traditional Spanish country craftsmanship, these chairs present a timeless profile perfect for adding warmth and character to
