Description

Monumental Portico Clock in Gilded Bronze and Biscuit signed on the back by the Manufacture Impériale de Sèvres. 19th century - Directoire Consulate style. The general structure of this clock remains Directoire Consulate but the Sphinxes, the Egyptian busts in sheaths and the eagle at the damping already announce the Empire style. Enamel dial signed by Oudin in Marseille. Chime on the hours and half hours. This clock is in perfect working order (it has been revised by a watchmaker). Very beautiful gilding on the bronzes and beautiful quality of chiseling. Complete with its key. Height: 61.5 cm Width: 45 cm Depth: 11.4 cm
