Description

Eugène Henri Cauchois was born in Rouen on February 14, 1850, and died in Paris on October 7, 1911. His masters were Ferdinand Dubosc and Alexandre Cabanel. This floral composition is very interesting for its vase representing a woman and the jewels placed on an entablature. The works of Eugène Henri Cauchois with the very dark background like this one, are the most sought after. Signed at the bottom, right. Original gilded frame. Delivery possible, please contact us.
