Description

Rare pair of swivel stools by Philippe Starck
Paris/ L'Oréal 1989.

Pair of swivel stools with adjustable height. An ingenious system of castors that lock with the weight of the person sitting on them. Decorative and minimalist, they fit easily into all interiors, old and modern. Published by the great house L'Oréal Paris, Starck shows the relationships between marketing and design that today make up his brand image. One stool has marks on the seat, the second is impeccable.
