This small stained mahogany center display table opens with a dark mitered framed flap with a beveled glass pane. The latter is decorated at the corners with bronze women's heads and surrounded by a frieze of brass rosettes. An authentic and functional lock, accompanied by a key and an entrance decorated with interlacing plants, allows locking. The interior offers a simple storage space. The belt is also decorated with motifs of chimeras, palmettes and crowns. The whole rests on four angular curved legs with bronze scraps and delicately chiseled edging as clogs. This small display case will allow, for example, the exhibition of small precious objects, such as jewelry, while being very decorative.  Period: Mid 19th century Excellent condition Waxed finish on hard background.
