

8 Cast Iron Foo Dog Grilles English Colonial House Rangoon Burma, Late 19th Century

440 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Cast iron

Width : 27 cm

Height : 74 cm

Description

8 cast iron grilles from an English colonial house, motif with Foo Dog and arabesque used on balconies and windows of an English colonial house in Burma. English-made foundry Glasgow, late 19th and early 20th century. Old paint stripped, traces of recent rust. Height 74 cm, width 27 cm, thickness 1 cm. Recovered from an English colonial house in Rangoon, Burma, late 19th and early 20th century. Can be used as a separation, balcony, included in a gate or wall partition, headboard or other....

Dealer

Dionisio

South East Asian Art

Mobile : 06 07 24 23 35

16 Rue Estacarede

Puimisson 34480