

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Line Vautrin Brooch In Gilded Bronze, Talosels And Glass Beads

2 350 EUR

Signature : Line Vautrin

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Line Vautrin brooch from the 60s, in gilded bronze, decorated with a cascade of faceted glass beads and talosels. These bring this particular light and shine, deep, with changing colors. As a highlight, a pyramid-shaped tassel, decorated with cracked talosels, particularly luminous. unsigned. Line VAUTRIN (1913 - 1997) is a French artist and designer of jewelry and decorative objects known worldwide. Daughter of an art bronzier, she revealed herself to be a precocious artist, who would prove to be original and independent with regard to the artistic conventions of her time. Revealed by her jewelry collection at the 1937 Universal Exhibition, which allowed her to open a boutique on the Champs Elysées, she has since created unique, strong, highly identifiable pieces, full of freedom,

Dealer

La Galerie de la Seine

Achat et vente d'objets art déco, bijoux anciens et d'occasion

Mobile : 0679230390

Le Village Suisse, 78 avenue de Suffren

Paris 75015

imagination, lyricism and poetry, but also mischievousness and humor, referring to poems, concepts, hidden messages, suggested or engraved.....Particularly innovative, she created a new material: "talosel", which can be found on many of her works, including the particularly sought-after "witch mirrors"....The invention of this material and her creative universe earned her the nickname "metal poet".