Description

Paul Flaubert (1928-1994): "Lady with a bouquet, oil on panel 24 X 19.5 cm, mounted in a pitch pine frame a little too large on the sides 32 X 28 cm. "In its own juice", to be cleaned, very small chip of paint on the right of the face. Circa 1960. Before moving towards pointillism, Paul Flaubert had a more impressionist period close to Renoir. Our painting is related to it with this young woman in a dress and hat picking wild flowers to make a bouquet. Do not hesitate to ask us for photos or additional information by email or telephone.
