Beautiful framed drawing by Eliane Diverly (1914-2012). Promise. Mixed media on paper, signed on the right SDC24DIV001 Coming from a family of perfumers, she grew up in Grasse after spending her early years in Paris.

Encouraged by her family, she took classes at the Grande Chaumière in Paris, where she later settled. She held her first exhibitions in Cannes and Nice. She is credited with works for advertising, fashion magazines and especially for the world of perfumery from which she came. She was a member of the Salons du Dessin et de la Peinture à l'eau, the Musée de la Marine, the National des Beaux Arts, and the Artistes français. Éliane Diverly was invited to present a retrospective of her works at the Salon des Indépendants in 1999. She received numerous
