Description

This 1930s watercolor by Jean-François Commauche carefully illustrates the Rue Mouffetard in Paris, capturing the excitement of a bustling market. With remarkable precision and meticulous detail, it bears witness to daily Parisian life, enriched by authentic elements such as the advertising sign for "ViNay" chocolates. This brand, emblematic of the 19th and early 20th centuries, was produced in Ivry-sur-Seine and bears witness to the commercial history of the period. Signed lower right, this work in excellent condition is a true artistic and historical testimony. 44 x 32 without frame 57.5 x 43.5 with frame
