Description

Rare Baccarat crystal glass set, Pavot model, designed by Boris Tabacoff, 30 pieces. Exceptional glass set in clear, plain, transparent crystal created from 1970 to 1978. Designed by the designer Boris Tabacoff (1927-1985), creator of furniture and objects, who created the Pavot models in 1970, José in 1971 and Narcisse in 1971 for the Cristalleries de Baccarat. His entire work is characterized by a pronounced taste for the circle, the cylinder and the sphere and a marked attraction to transparency including glass and crystal. Balloon-shaped chalice on a long leg evoking a drop of water hanging from a tree branch. It consists of: 10 water glasses, 10 red wine glasses, 10 white wine glasses. Dimensions: Water glasses: Height 18.3 cm / Diameter at the rim 7 cm / Diameter at the base: 7 cm. Red wine glasses: Height 17 cm / Diameter at the rim 6.5 cm / Diameter at the base 7 cm. White wine glasses: Height 16 cm / Diameter at the rim 6 cm / Diameter at the base 6.5 cm. Magnificent work of stretching the crystal while hot. The chalice appears to be placed directly on the stem, which gives an effect of lightness and grace. Each glass is stamped under the base. A superb model, very original, easy to coordinate with contemporary tableware but not only ...
