Alphonse Lecoze Venice and its Canals oil on canvas circa 1890-1900

A call to travel, or nostalgia for a beautiful trip to Venice, is certainly the feeling inspired by this beautiful painting signed lower right by Alphonse LECOZE circa 1890-1900.

As usual, Alphonse Lecoze captured the light and atmosphere created by the typical colors of the lagoon city with great skill. Here, he offers us a lovely view of a Venetian canal leading to the lagoon, animated by a Gondolier.

The theme of the canals of Venice is a destination for many painters and an absolute source of inspiration.

Alphonse Lecoz: 19th - 20th century.

French painter, most of whose paintings are tributes to Venice.

Little is known about the life of Alphonse Lecoz, who was a pseudonym used by a Petit Maître of painting at the end of the 19th century, a painter who was able to keep his secret.
